

The fine dining restaurant Dae Mon with its „open minded cuisine“ is expanding to include a wine terrace.

Together with sommelier Julius Lemp from the wine merchant „Winzerbruder“ and the two chefs Samuel Haas and Phillip Steixner, owner Stefan Reinhardt has designed his idea for an uncomplicated, easy summer terrace experience.

On the wine terrace, you can enjoy old, mature Rieslings and bubbles by the glass with the innovative Coravin system as well as easy-drinking wines from his good winemaker friends such as Axel Neiss, Philipp Kuhn, Johannes Jülg and Aurelia Hamm, also by the bottle, with culinary delights from the street food kitchen, all of which have of course already been tried and tested in the fine dining restaurant.
